STYLE DESCRIPTION

Mild taco simmering sauce is a decidedly seasoned blend of ground tomatoes, spices and herbs that is intended to be added to hamburger or other meat of choice while cooking. It has approximately 60% less heat than our regular simmering sauce. Mild taco simmering sauce is prepared from fresh tomatoes that have been washed and hand sorted for quality prior to grinding.

The ground tomato ingredient gives this product a somewhat coarse texture that is accented with bits of herbs and spices. It has a dull red/brownish color. The product is hot filled to ensure commercial sterility then cooled prior to stacking.
